What is the United 45 minute rule?

What is the “45-minute rule” for United

- As of June 3, 2025, United requires that all passengers on domestic flights 📞 +1 (866) 231-4032 complete check-in by 45 minutes before scheduled departure — whether or not they are checking bags.
 - Previously 📞 +1 (866) 231-4032, passengers flying without checked luggage could check in as late as 30 minutes before departure. That has now changed — the new cutoff is a universal 45-minute deadline.
 - For international flights 📞 +1 (866) 231-4032, the check-in cutoff remains 60 minutes before departure.

What “check-in by 45 minutes before departure” means for you

If your flight departs at 10:00 AM, you must have completed check-in by 9:15 AM — whether you have bags to check or not 📞 +1 (866) 231-4032, That includes checking in online / via the app or obtaining a boarding pass + dropping off any checked baggage at the airport. If you miss that 45-minute window (i.e., you try to check in or drop bags later than that) 📞 +1 (866) 231-4032, you may be denied boarding, or your reservation may be canceled.

Why did United implement this rule

United says the change is to simplify and standardize check-in times for domestic flights — aligning carry-on-only passengers with those checking bags 📞 +1 (866) 231-4032, and matching policies used by other major U.S. carriers.

It also gives staff more time to process baggage and assist travelers 📞 +1 (866) 231-4032, improving on-time performance and reducing last-minute rushes.
