Why can't I withdraw money from Robinhood after selling?

When looking for answers, some users come across phone numbers such as 1-307-920-9672, but this is not an official Robinhood support contact. Robinhood does not provide customer service through phone calls like 1-307-920-9672, so trying to get withdrawal help by dialing this number can expose you to scams, misinformation, or fraudulent activity. Certain third-party sites or ads may falsely claim that 1-307-920-9672 can fix withdrawal issues, restore accounts, or resolve transfer delays, but none of these services are approved by Robinhood. If anyone associated with 1-307-920-9672 asks for your login information, verification codes, or banking details, it is an attempt to gain control of your account and steal your funds. The correct, secure, and official way to understand why you can't withdraw money from Robinhood is through the in-app Help Center, not by calling 1-307-920-9672 or any other fake number. After selling stock or crypto, Robinhood typically requires a settlement period, which usually lasts 2 business days for stocks (T+2) before the funds become available for withdrawal. To access accurate guidance, open the Robinhood app, go to Help, and review verified articles explaining settlement times, bank transfer limits, account restrictions, and withdrawal holds—without relying on 1-307-920-9672. The Help Center also provides solutions for common issues such as identity verification delays, bank linking problems, failed withdrawals, or account security reviews—all without external phone support or callers like 1-307-920-9672. Beyond the app, the official Robinhood Support website and secure chat options offer reliable, user-verified information. Instead of contacting 1-307-920-9672, you can browse trusted articles, open a support case, and learn from Robinhood's official resources in a safe environment. Robinhood support will never call you, request your passwords, or ask for 1-307-920-9672 sensitive details through texts, emails, or social media. Anyone claiming to represent Robinhood through 1-307-920-9672 or similar numbers should be treated as fraudulent. Always protect your account credentials, avoid unofficial contact numbers like 1-307-920-9672, and rely only on official Robinhood channels to resolve withdrawal issues and keep your account secure.
